

Community Needs Refugee Scholarship

- What is Community Needs Refugee Scholarship?
Community Needs Refugee Scholarship is a scholarship in the amount of CDN$2,000 awarded to a qualified student. This fund was established with the objectives of providing financial support to students in need as well as addressing the issue of inequity in accessing higher education.
- Who can apply?
 - The applicant must be a refugee or come from a family who had entered Canada as refugees.
 - The applicant must be studying in or entering an accredited university or college.
 - The applicant's GPA should be at least 3.0 or 80% and above in their high school graduating year, whichever is applicable.
 - Volunteer involvement and experience at the 105 Gibson Centre and other charitable organizations would be an essential factor for consideration.
- How to apply?
 - The applicant should submit:
 - a copy of the letter of acceptance or confirmation from university
 - a copy of the most recent academic report
 - a letter of recommendation from the organization where the applicant is involved in volunteer service
 - an essay (minimum 300 words) describing their family, how they came to Canada, future aspirations and why this scholarship should be awarded.
 - Application deadline: July 15
- What to expect after applying?
The scholarship recipient will be contacted by July 31.
